

Arcadia Project's March Project, Watch and Talk: Patrick!

Just in time for St. Patrick's day, join us for a dramatic new look at the history, not the hagiography, of one of the most beloved but misunderstood icons of world religion. The documentary is part adventure tale and part spiritual awakening, with the future saint rising from slave to liberator. Hear from author Frank McCourt and others about how Patrick's courage set him free, how his faith called him back and how his vision transformed a nation. Watch the trailer here:

Watch and Talk

- When: Sunday March 13, 2021, 7:00 - 8:00 pm
- What: You'll watch the Hallmark Channel documentary 'Patrick' in your own time; then we will meet online and WWPL President and CEO Robin von Seldeneck will lead a discussion with the director and producer, Pamela Mason Wagner, the composer of the Emmy-nominated score Thomas Wagner, and the author of a lushly illustrated new book Stories of the Saints, Casey Wallace.
- How: we'll use Zoom online video conferencing. You need to register in advance. You'll receive the Zoom link and other instructions to join with your receipt confirmation from Woodrow Wilson Presidential Library.
- Register Here (pay as you will).
- All proceeds will go to The Woodrow Wilson Presidential Library and Arcadia Project

We invite you to watch the 53-minute documentary Patrick free of charge at a private link here.

WWPL and Arcadia Project are partnering to bring attention to stories of courage and transformation and the story of St. Patrick points to Woodrow Wilson's Irish roots and the fact that he comes from a long line of clergy.

Arcadia Project's mission is to create community through culture and creativity. We look forward to exploring the film and the themes it raises with you. Feel free to invite your friends and neighbors.
