

The Arcadia Project would like to introduce you to our latest event: bringing creative installations to our windows downtown in the Queen City. We're calling it "A Year of Art." But you could say the artists are "love bombing" our buildings. On a rotating basis, a local artist will showcase their art in our windows. Each artist embraces a unique set of talents and styles, so each brings a different flavor to downtown. However, the one thing they all have in common is that their art is transformative. What may look to you like a simple metal pipe, or a piece of glass, is turned into a whole new object by one of our artists. Curated by Arcadia Project volunteer (and mosaic artist) Denise Moclair.

Artists in order from top left to bottom right: Oyunaa Waskins, Gail Lockwood, Scott Suter, Hal Aaslestad, Noelia Nunez, Albert Francis, Egan Strickler, and Micheal Hough.

Art for Sale

Come by the buildings to support these local creators throughout the year! All art will be available for purchase through the artist and every purchase helps support both the artist and the Arcadia Project!

Music at the Movies

The first season of Music at the Movies ended on Thursday, June 2, with a sold out show at the Visulite. Robin and Linda Williams delighted the audience with tunes and tales of first meeting Guy Clark when they all lived in Nashville. They performed a Townes Van Zandt song along with several of their own. The documentary about Guy & Susanna Clark and Van Zandt -- Without Getting Killed or Caught -- prompted more discussion with the filmmakers Tamara Saviano and Paul Whitfield who shared stories including how they wound up booking Cissy Spacek to do the amazing voiceover, performing Susanna's letters.

SAVE THE DATE: The next season of Music at the Movies shifts to the first Tuesday of every month beginning on Tuesday Sept. 6. Tickets go on sale over the summer.

BRING WHO YOU ARE

ARCADIA PROJECT, P.O. Box 571, Staunton, VA 24402, 540.885.3211

info@thearcadiaproject.org

Unsubscribe Manage preferences

Send free email today

HubSpot