

BRING WHO YOU ARE

Bringing History to Life

After years of anticipation, we are thrilled to announce that our historic theater is undergoing a remarkable transformation. Take a look at the start of a journey to restore this community gem, mixing modern amenities with 1930s charm. See more here.

Old Time Music Workshop at Augusta Co. Library

On June 5, attendees at our Appalachian music demonstration had a wonderful time stepping back into the late 19th century! We proudly hosted the talented Bill Wellington who invited guest artist Celeste Frey for an afternoon of soulful melodies and foot-tapping rhythms. Everyone enjoyed learning more about our musical roots. Listen to (and watch) a snippet here.

Historic Staunton Foundation Tour Recap

We're grateful for the 53 attendees who joined us on a remarkable journey through history during the Historic Staunton Foundation Tour! Our esteemed board members Cass Cannon and Danny Brown served as guides, sharing their knowledge with a captivated audience. Together, we explored the rich heritage and architectural treasures that define our beloved community, including our historic theater.

Have questions? Either respond to this email or write us at info@thearcadiaproject.org

ARCADIA PROJECT, P.O. Box 571, Staunton, VA 24402, 540.885.3211
info@thearcadiaproject.org
Unsubscribe Manage preferences

Send free email today
HubSpot